GIVE LOCAL YORK - ALL DAY ON MAY 3

Support Creative York on "Give Local York" Big Give Day!

May 3 is the second annual "Give Local York" Big Give Day, a county-wide day of giving that benefits over 300 York County non-profit organizations. Creative York is eligible for a GLY Stretch Pool Match and an "Arts Match" donation from our partners at The Cultural Alliance of York County if we can hit our donation goals. Will you help us reach our goal of $10,000? Give a little or give a lot, every little bit counts! Come downtown and join the fun during First Friday from 5-9 pm, or secure giving can be done right on-line at <https://www.givelocalyork.org/organizations/creative-york>

*Give Local York raised nearly $1.5 million for local non-profits
at last year's one-day event!*

NEW EXHIBITS AT CREATIVE YORK!

Opening Reception: Thursday, May 2 from 6-8 pm

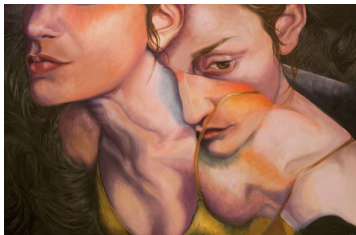

These exhibits run from May 2 - June 15, 2019

New Gallery Hours! Monday through Saturday from 10-2

IN THE KERLIN GALLERY:

The Art In Residence Companion Exhibit

This group exhibit showcases available works by some of the artists featured in our April 27th Art In Residence gala event (a one-night-only exhibit of works from privately-owned collections). Participating artists: Niles S. Benn, Lexus Gore, Brittany Lee Howard, Katelyn Lau, Julie Riker, Linda Sommer, Polly Stetler, and Frances Donnelly Wolf. Plus a special appearance of a piece by a world-famous artist on the opening night only!

Katelyn Lau is one of 8 artists featured in the Art In Residence Companion Exhibit.

IN THE PROJECT SPACE:

CONTRAST: Divergent Encounters With Racism - Ophelia Chambliss, Matt Apol

A collaborative educational exhibition between Ophelia Chambliss and Matthew Apol, CONTRAST is a visual representation of parallel experiences of race and racism across divergent perspectives of age and ethnicity. The function of the exhibition is to highlight, describe, and elaborate on the significant events regarding the differences and similarities in the ways that each artist has encountered and experienced racial tension over the course of their lives. Learn more about the exhibit HERE.

Artists Ophelia Chambliss and Matthew Apol examine the different ways they have experienced racial tension.

EVENT RECAP: ARTIST ROUND TABLE

Arts Ambassador visits Creative York to host special event for artists

We were honored to host Ibiyinka Alao, international artist and Arts Ambassador to the United Nations, for an Artist Round Table event in which Ibi got to meet 29 of our regional artists and discuss their work in this free interactive event. Ibi also came to teach at our Teen Art House program for two weeks earlier this year, and participated in our previous IDENTITY exhibit. We have loved working with Ibi, and look forward to him visiting again this fall!
