THE WRITER'S EYE LITERARY COMPETITION 2025-2026

OPEN TO STUDENTS AND ADULTS

ABOUT THE COMPETITION

The Writer’s Eye Literary Competition links the inspiration of writers to the creative vision of artists. Participants are invited to write a poem or short story in response to the Rob Evans: Five Decades of Work (Part II: 2000-2025) exhibition on display from October 2nd-November 22nd, 2025 at Creative York.

Writer’s are invited to take a tour of the gallery while the show is on display. The entry deadline is December 23, 2025 by midnight.

The competition is open to students in grades 4-12, college students, and adults. Entry forms must accompany submissions. First, second, third, and honorable mention ribbons will be awarded in four age categories.

Winners will be announced in March 2026. Winning works are also shared with the community by Creative York in the form of a booklet, as well as a ceremony where authors are invited to read their work aloud to an audience.
